

AFAR

4 Stunning Hotels That Will Make You Want to Spend Summer in New England

Gilded

The Lark Hotels brand has been quietly opening boutique hotels with loads of personality throughout New England over the last two years. Lark's latest creation, Gilded, opened on May 7 in Newport, Rhode Island. Tucked away just off mansion-lined Bellevue Avenue, Gilded puts a cheeky twist on Gilded Age glamour. The 17 rooms and suites are decorated in bold peacock blue, violet, and fuchsia colors and come with great amenities, including Lather bath products. In the evenings, guests can play pool or sip cocktails in the chandelier-lit billiards room or gather in the courtyard for lawn games and fire-roasted S'mores.

