When wedding season strikes, the Green Guy ups his game

Getting ready for a wedding in any sort of green way is a bit tricky. Usually, I try to stick with neutral scents in my products, but when I know I'll be talking/dancing/sweating close to other people, I aim for something that will make me smell fresh all night long. Enter Lather's Eucalyptus and Clay Soap made with 100% organic olive oil. The fresh eucalyptus appeals to wedding dance partners as well as any koalas that may be in attendance.
